PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

DINNER PARTY MENUS.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
So many letters have asked for menus suitable throughout for cooking in paper bags that here follow several, each suitable for a party dinner. Direction for cooking more than half their component parts have already been printed.

If you feel that you must begin your party feast with raw oysters, take them straight—from the half-shell. If the half-shell way cumbers you, serve the oysters in cocktails.

If your oysters must be hot, put them in a paper bag, after draining them well, add a generous lump of butter for each dozen of the oysters, a dusting of pepper and a little salt. Seal the bag, which must be thickly buttered, and cook for six minutes inside a very hot oven.

Here is my ideal paper bag cooked dinner for six.

Grapefruit au Rham
Olives Warmed in Sherry
Salted Pecans
Spiced Plums Celery Apple or Cranberry Sauce
Roast Turkey Raisin Stuffing
Gravy from the Bag
Endive Salad Sharp French Dressing
Sweet Potatoes in Syrup
Cauliflower au Gratin
Mince Pie Sweet Potato Custard
Fruit and Nuts in Variety
Black Coffee Wafers, Cheesed or Plain with Pimento Cheese

Here is a Christmas dinner for hearty appetites:

Oysters, Bag, Stewed and Served in Separate Bags
Celery Toasted Crackers
Quartered Lemons
Salted Peanuts Radishes Sharp Pickle
Roast Goose, Apple and Onion Stuffing
Baked Spanish Onions
Baked Irish Potatoes White Turnips
Apple Sauce Cucumber Catsup
Hot Corn Bread
Cold Slaw Bofled Dressing
Pimento Sandwiches Water Wafers
Pumpkin Pie Banana Pie
Pound Cake Caramel Cake
Nuts and Raisins
Coffee in large cups Sweet Cider
Water Wafers Dried Beef Crisped in a Pan

Beef thus crisped till it crackles in the teeth is wonderfully relished at the end of a heavy dinner. It gives the saving tang of salt that is so refreshing. A very little—a mere mouthful, suffices. Put it thinly in a clean pan, with a tiny dot of butter, set the pan in the oven after the fire is out, but while there is still heat, shut the door and leave till wanted. The beef can be crisped over a low flame, of course, if the oven is wanted for other use. Make the wafers also hot and crisp.

To make pimento sandwiches, mince half a can of pimentos, rub them well through a cake of the best cream cheese, adding enough French dressing to make the mixture spread smooth on the buttered bread. Few better accompaniments for any sort of salad can be found.

Peel and slice your turnips and put them in a well greased bag with a light seasoning of salt, a lump of butter barely dusted with flour, and enough thin stock to half cover them. Seal and cook in a gentle heat fifty minutes to an hour and a quarter, depending on the size of the bag. Empty into hot dish and if not rich enough add more butter, dust with black pepper, and, if approved, add a little vinegar. Mashing is optional.

Oyster Broth
Hot Oyster Sandwiches
Brown Bread Celery
Salted Peanuts Radishes
Fresh Ham, Stuffed and Roasted
Sweet Potatoes cooked in the Ham-bag
Cabbage Pudding
Baked Onions Baked Apples
Baked Potatoes
Prune Whip (entree)
Romaine Salad, Sour Cream Dressing
Hot Biscuit
Ginger Pudding, Lemon Sauce, Fruit and Nuts
Coffee in large cups Ale Cider

Drain the liquor from the oysters, strain it, add to it its own bulk of rich milk, and if the quantity is insufficient half its own bulk of good stock. Add a lump of butter rolled in flour, season with salt and pepper, and make very hot, but do not let it quite boil. Stir so the broth shall not curdle. Pour into a hot tureen, already furnished with tiny squares of hot toasted stale bread or crisped oyster crackers.

For the sandwiches make a light, rich biscuit dough, cut it in four-inch squares, bake them quickly, split while very hot, and fill after buttering with the oysters which have been bearded, chopped well, and made very hot in a bag with butter cream, a dash of cherry or lemon juice or cider, seasoned lightly with salt and pepper and cooked for three to five minutes. Serve as quickly as possible along with the broth. Finely minced celery mixed with the oysters improves them.

For sour cream dressing beat until very light two yolks of egg with a pinch of salt, a dust of pepper and a little paprika. Then add half a cup of thick sour cream and cook over hot water, stirring hard all the time for five minutes. Add a heaping tablespoonful of butter, a tablespoonful of lemon juice and two of vinegar. Cook smooth, stirring hard. Use cold.
